Head Office : Riyadh

Draft : 2nd Version

Request No. : 1108233

The Company may transact cooperative reinsurance activities and carry out all necessary actions to achieve its objectives. The Company shall conduct its business activities in accordance with the Law on Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies and its Implementing Regulations, the provisions issued by the Insurance Authority, and the laws and regulations applicable in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, after obtaining the necessary licenses from the competent authorities, if any.

CHAPTER (II) - Capital and Shares

Article (8): Capital

The Issued Capital of the Company stands at One Billion Six Hundred and Ninety-Eight Million and One Hundred Thousand Riyals (SR 1,698,100,000.00), divided into (1,698,100,00) nominal shares of equal nominal value, the value of each share is Ten Riyals (SR 10), all of which are ordinary shares in exchange for cash contributions. The paid-up capital is One Billion Six Hundred and Ninety-Eight Million and One Hundred Thousand Riyals (SR 1,698,100,000.00). The cash paid from the issued capital has been deposited with a licensed bank in the name of the Company under incorporation.

Article (9): Subscription to Shares (Capital)

The shareholders have subscribed to all the issued capital shares amounting to SR (1,698,100,00) which were fully paid.

Article (10): Shareholders' Register

- 1- The Company shall maintain a register containing the names, nationalities, particulars, places of residence, and professions of the shareholders, the number of shares owned by each one, and the numbers of the shares and the amount paid thereof. The Company may contract for the preparation of this Register, and it must be kept in the Kingdom.
- 2- The Company shall provide the Commercial Registry with the Register data referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article and any amendments thereto within fifteen (15) days from the date of the Company's registration with the Commercial Registry or from the date of the amendment, as the case may be.

Article (11): Investments of the Company

The Company shall invest its accumulated funds collected for its Insureds and Shareholders as per the rules set out by the Board of Directors that do not contradict the Law on Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies, its Implementing Regulations and other related regulations and directions issued by Insurance Authority or any other relevant and competent entity.

Article (12): Issuance of Shares

- 1- The shares of the Company shall be registered and may not be issued at less than their nominal value but may be issued at a higher value. In the latter case, the difference in value shall be added to a separate item within shareholders' equity. Shares may not be distributed as dividends to shareholders. A share is indivisible with respect to the Company. If a share is owned by many persons, they must choose one of them to represent them in exercising the rights related to it. These persons shall be jointly liable for the obligations arising from the ownership of the share.
- 2- The Company may, after obtaining the approval of the Insurance Authority, buy, pledge, and sell its shares in accordance with the Companies Law and the regulations issued by the regulatory authorities. Shares purchased by the Company shall not have voting rights in the shareholders' meetings.

- 3- The Company may, after obtaining the approval of the Insurance Authority, buy, pledge, and sell its shares in accordance with the Companies Law and the regulations issued by the regulatory authorities. Shares purchased by the Company shall not have voting rights in shareholders' meetings.

Article (13): Capital Increase

- 1- The Extraordinary General Assembly may decide to increase the capital of the Company after obtaining the approval of the Insurance Authority and the Capital Market Authority (CMA), provided that the capital has been fully paid up. It is not required that the capital be fully paid up if the unpaid portion of the capital pertains to shares issued in exchange for converting debt instruments or financing instruments into shares, and the period stipulated for their conversion into shares has not yet expired.
- 2- The Extraordinary General Assembly may, in all cases, allocate the shares issued upon the capital increase, or a portion thereof, to the employees of the Company and its subsidiaries, or some of them, or any combination thereof. Shareholders may not exercise their pre-emptive right when the Company issues shares allocated to employees.
- 3- A shareholder who owns a share at the time of the Extraordinary General Assembly's resolution approving the capital increase has priority in subscribing to the new shares issued in exchange for cash contributions. The shareholders' priority, if any, shall be communicated by registered letter to their address as recorded in the shareholders' register, or through modern technological means, regarding the capital increase resolution, the terms and conditions of subscription, its method, and its start and end dates.
- 4- The Extraordinary General Assembly has the right to suspend the pre-emptive rights of shareholders to subscribe to a capital increase in exchange for cash shares, or to grant pre-emptive rights to non-shareholders, in those cases it deems appropriate for the Company's interests.
- 5- A shareholder has the right to sell or assign their pre-emptive rights during the period from the date of the Extraordinary General Assembly's resolution approving the capital increase until the last day of subscription for the new shares associated with these rights, in accordance with the regulations set by the Capital Market Authority.

Article (14): Capital Reduction

- 1- The Extraordinary General Assembly may decide to reduce the capital if it exceeds the Company's needs or if the Company incurs losses, subject to the approval of the Insurance Authority and the Capital Market Authority, provided that the paid-up capital of a reinsurance company or an insurance company that simultaneously conducts reinsurance business is not less than 300 million riyals. The reduction decision shall not be issued except after a statement prepared by the Board of Directors is read at the General Assembly, outlining the reasons for the reduction, the company's obligations, and the impact of the reduction on fulfilling those obligations. This statement shall be accompanied by a report from the Company's Auditor.
- 2- If capital reduction is a result of the capital exceeding the Company's needs, creditors must be invited to submit their objections at least forty-five (45) days before the date set for the Extraordinary General Assembly meeting to decide on the reduction. The invitation must include a statement clarifying the amount of capital before and after the reduction, the date of the meeting, and the effective date of the reduction. If any shareholder objects and his documents to the Company within the specified time, the Company must pay them his debt if it is due or provide him with sufficient guarantees for payment if it is not yet due.
- 3- Equality must be observed among shareholders holding shares of the same type and class when reducing capital.

Article (15): Trading of Shares

The shares of the Company shall be traded in accordance with the Capital Market Law and its Implementing Regulations.

CHAPTER (III) – Board of Directors

Article (16): Company's Management

- A. The Company shall be managed by a Board of Directors composing of eleven (11) members who must be natural persons elected by the Ordinary General Assembly for a period not exceeding four (4) years.
- B. The procedures of the Board of Directors are defined as follows:

A valid quorum for a meeting is 50% of the Board members.

A valid quorum for making decisions requires the approval of 51% of the members present.

Board members may appoint a proxy to attend meetings.

Communication among Board members is as follows: The Board convene meeting at the invitation of its Chairman. The Chairman must call for a meeting whenever any Board member requests it in writing to discuss one or more topics. The invitation must be documented in a manner deemed appropriate by the Board.

The rules for terminating Board membership are as follows:

- 1- Membership on the Board of Directors terminates upon the expiration of the Board's term, resignation, death, or if the Board determines that a member has breached their duties in a manner detrimental to the Company's interests, provided that this is accompanied by the approval of the Ordinary General Assembly, or upon the termination of their membership in accordance with any regulations or instructions in force in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia, or if they are declared bankrupt or insolvent, or if they submit a request for settlement with their creditors, or cease paying their debts, or become Loss of consciousness, or suffering from a mental illness or physical disability that may prevent a member from fully performing their duties, or if it is proven that he/she is found to have committed an act that violates honesty and morality, or is convicted of forgery by a final verdict.
- 2- The General Assembly may, upon the recommendation of the Board of Directors, terminate the membership of a member who has been absent from three (3) consecutive meetings or five (5) separate meetings during his/ her term of membership without a legitimate excuse acceptable to the Board of Directors.
- 3- The Ordinary General Assembly may, at any time, dismiss all or some members of the Board of Directors, subject to any regulations set by the Capital Market Authority. In this case, the Ordinary General Assembly shall elect a new Board of Directors or a replacement for the dismissed member, as the case may be, in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations.
- 4- If a member of the Board of Directors resigns and has observations on the Company's performance, he must submit a written statement thereof to the Chairman of the Board of Directors. This statement must be presented to the members of the Board of Directors.
- 5- The Insurance Authority must be notified upon the resignation of any member of the Board or the termination of their membership for any reason other than the end of the Board's term, within five (5) working days from the date of leaving work, taking into account the relevant disclosure requirements.

Article (17): Termination or Expiration of Board Membership

- 1- Board membership shall terminate upon the expiration of its term or the expiration of the member's eligibility for membership in accordance with any applicable regulations or instructions in the Kingdom. However, the General Assembly may (based on a recommendation from the Board of Directors) terminate the membership of any member who is absent from three (3) consecutive meetings or five (5) separate meetings during his/ her term of membership without a legitimate excuse acceptable to the Board of Directors.

Article (18): Expiration of Board of Directors' Term, Resignation of Members or Board Vacant Positions

1. The Board of Directors shall, before the expiration of its term, invite the Ordinary General Assembly to elect a new Board for a new term. If the election cannot be made and the current Board's term expires, its members shall continue to perform their duties until a new Board of Directors is elected, provided that the term of office of the outgoing Board members does not exceed the period specified in the Implementing Regulations of the Companies Law.
2. If the Chairman and members of the Board of Directors resign, they must call for an ordinary General Assembly to elect a new Board of Directors, and the resignation shall not take effect until the new Board is elected, provided that the term of the resigning Board does not exceed the period specified in the Implementing Regulations of the Companies Law.
3. A Board member may resign from membership of the Board by a written notification addressed to the Chairman of the Board, and If the Chairman of the Board resigns, the notification must be addressed to the remaining Board members and the Board Secretary. In both cases, the resignation shall be effective from the date specified in the notification.
4. If a Board member's position becomes vacant due to death or resignation, and this vacancy does not result in a deficiency of members below the minimum required for a valid Board meeting, the Board may (temporarily) appoint a qualified and experienced member to the vacant position. Accordingly, the Board must notify the Commercial Registry and, if the Company is listed on the Capital Market, the Capital Market Authority within fifteen (15) days of the appointment date. The appointment must then be presented to the Ordinary General Assembly at its first meeting. The appointed member will complete the term of his/ her predecessor.
5. Where the conditions required for holding the Board of Directors meeting are not satisfied because the number of Directors falls below the minimum stipulated in Companies Law or in the Company's Articles of Association, the remaining Directors must invite the Ordinary General Assembly to make a decision to elect the necessary number of Directors within sixty (60) days.

The Board of Directors must obtain the prior approval of the General Assembly when selling assets exceeding fifty percent (50%) of the total value of the Company's assets, whether the sale is made through a single transaction or several transactions. In this case, the transaction that results in exceeding fifty percent (50%) of the asset value is the one requiring the approval of the General Assembly. This percentage is calculated from the date of the first transaction that took place within the preceding twelve (12) months. The Board of Directors may, within its authority, delegate one or more of its members or to third parties the authority to carry out specific action(s).

Article (20): Remuneration of the Board Members

1. Remuneration of the Board of Directors consists of a specified amount, or meeting attendance fee, material benefits, or a percentage of the net profits, provided that the Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations are observed when determining the remuneration.
2. The Board of Directors' annual report to the Ordinary General Assembly shall include a comprehensive statement of all remuneration, meeting attendance fee, expense allowances, and other benefits received or due to each member of the Board during the fiscal year. It must also include a statement of what the Board members received in their official capacity as well as a statement of the number of Board meetings and the number of meetings attended by each member.

Article (21): Powers of the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Managing Director, and Board Secretary

The Board of Directors shall appoint, in its first meeting a Chairman from among its members. The Board may also appoint, from its members, a Managing Director or Vice Chairman.

1. The Board of Directors shall appoint a Chief Executive Officer.

The Chairman of the Board shall be responsible for:

The representative is authorized to represent the Company with all service providers, including telecommunications, landline, mobile, and internet services, as well as the Saudi Electricity Company and the National Water Company, to subscribe to, transfer, or cancel any of their services, and to request access codes and passwords for e-services. They are also authorized to liaise with all relevant parties, complete all necessary procedures, sign documents as required, request e-services, receive access codes and passwords for all the aforementioned services and powers, issue written authorizations and legal and official Powers of Attorney to delegate, authorize, or empower all or some of the aforementioned powers to one or more persons, entities, or authorities, and grant the authority to delegate these powers to others.

Article (26): Remuneration of Board Members and the Special Remuneration of the Chairman and Managing Director

- 1- The General Assembly shall determine the amount of the Board of Directors' remuneration based on the recommendation of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee. The remuneration shall be fair and proportionate to the members' responsibilities and the work and duties performed by the Board members.
- 2- The remuneration of Board members shall be a fixed sum, an attendance allowance for meetings, in-kind benefits, or a specific percentage of net profits. It is permissible to combine two or more of these benefits.
- 3- If the remuneration is a specific percentage of the Company's profits, this percentage shall not exceed 10% of net profits, after deducting the reserves decided by the General Assembly in accordance with the provisions of the Law On Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies, the Companies Law, and these Articles of Association, and after distributing a profit to shareholders of not less than 5% of the Company's paid-up capital, provided that the entitlement to this remuneration shall be proportional to the number of meetings attended by the member.
- 4- The Board of Directors' report to the Ordinary General Assembly at its annual meeting must include a comprehensive statement of all remuneration, meeting attendance fee, expense allowances, and other benefits received or due to each member of the Board during the fiscal year. It must also include a statement of all payments received by Board members in their capacity as employees or administrators, or for technical, administrative, or consulting services. Furthermore, it must include a statement of the number of Board meetings and the number of meetings attended by each member.

Article (27): Powers and Term of Membership of the Chairman of the Board, Membership of the Vice Chairman, the Managing Director, and the Secretary

The Board of Directors shall appoint from among its members a Chairman and a Vice Chairman. It may also appoint a Managing Director. The Board shall also appoint a Chief Executive Officer from among its members or from outside the Board. The position of Chairman of the Board may not be combined with any executive position within the Company. The Chairman of the Board has the right to sign on behalf of the Company and implement the Board's resolutions. The Chairman of the Board is responsible for representing the Company before the courts, arbitration bodies, and third parties. The Chairman may, by written resolution, delegate some of his powers to other members of the Board or to third parties to perform specific tasks. The Board determines the salaries, allowances, and bonuses of both the Chairman and the Managing Director, in accordance with Article (19) of these Articles of Association. The Board must appoint a secretary and may also appoint one or more advisors to assist with various Company matters, and the Board determines their remuneration. The term of office for the Chairman, Vice Chairman, Managing Director (if any), and Secretary (a member of the Board) shall not exceed their individual terms on the Board. They may be re-elected, and the Board may dismiss them or any of them at any time.

Article (28): Agreements and Contracts

- 1- The Company may, after obtaining approval from the Insurance Authority, enter into a technical services management agreement with one or more qualified insurance and reinsurance companies.
- 2- No Board member may have any direct or indirect interest in the business and contracts concluded on behalf of the Company except with the authorization of the Ordinary General Assembly or the Board of Directors, as delegated by the Assembly's authority to grant such authorization, in accordance with the relevant provisions. A member of the Board must inform the Board of any direct or indirect interest they have in the business and contracts concluded on behalf of the Company, and this notification must be recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- 3- Such a member may not participate in voting on any resolution issued in this regard by the Board of Directors or shareholders' assemblies.
- 4- The Chairman of the Board of Directors shall inform the Ordinary General Assembly, at its meeting, of any business or contracts in which a member of the Board has a direct or indirect interest. This notification shall be accompanied by a special report from the Company's external auditor.
- 5- If a Board member fails to disclose his/her interest, the Company or any interested party may file a claim before the competent judicial authority to invalidate the contract or compel the member to pay any profit or benefit he/she gained from it.
- 6- Liability for damages resulting from the actions and contracts referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article rests with the member with an interest in the action or contract, as well as with Board members if they neglect to perform their obligations in violation of the provisions of that paragraph, if it is proven that they are unfair, involve a conflict of interest, or harm shareholders.
- 7- Board members who oppose a decision are exempt from liability if they expressly record their objection in the minutes of the meeting. Absence from the meeting at which the decision is issued is not ground for exemption from liability unless it is proven that the absent member was unaware of the decision or was unable to object to it after becoming aware of it.
- 8- A Board member may not participate in any business activity that would compete with the Company's or compete with the Company in any of its branches of business activity. Otherwise, the Company may claim appropriate compensation from him before the competent judicial authority, unless he has obtained prior authorization from the Ordinary General Assembly - renewed annually - allowing him to do so.

CHAPTER (IV) – Shareholders' Assemblies

Article (29): Shareholders' General Assembly Meeting

- 1- The General Assembly meeting of shareholders shall be chaired by the Board Chairman, or his deputy in his absence, or by a member of the Board of Directors nominated by him in their absence. If this is not possible, the General Assembly shall be chaired by a member of the Board or another member nominated by the shareholders through a vote.
- 2- Every shareholder has the right to attend the General Assembly meeting and may nominate a proxy who is not a member of the Board of Directors.
- 3- The General Assembly meeting may be held, and shareholders may participate in deliberations and vote on resolutions, using means of modern technology.

Article (30): Convening of General Assemblies

- 1- The Board of Directors shall convene general and special assemblies. The Board of Directors shall convene the Ordinary General Assembly within thirty (30) days from the date of a request from the auditor or one or more shareholders representing at least ten percent (10%) of the Company's shares with voting rights. The auditor may also convene the Ordinary General Assembly if the Board fails to do so within thirty (30) days of the auditor's request.
- 2- The request referred to in paragraph (1) of this Article must specify the matters on which shareholders are required to vote.
- 3- The invitation to convene the assembly shall be issued at least twenty-one (21) days before the scheduled date, in accordance with the provisions of the Law, taking into account the following:
 - a. Notifying shareholders by registered mail to their addresses as recorded in the shareholders' register or announcing the invitation through means of modern technology.
 - b. Sending a copy of the invitation and agenda to the Commercial Registry, and a copy to the Capital Market Authority if the Company is listed on the Capital Market on the date of the invitation announcement.
- 4- The notice for the General Assembly meeting must include, at a minimum, the following:
 - a. A statement of the shareholder's right to attend the meeting and their right to nominate a proxy from outside the Board of Directors, and a statement of the shareholder's right to discuss the items on the meeting's agenda, ask questions, and exercise their right to vote.
 - b. The place, date, and time of the meeting.
 - c. The type of assembly, whether general or special.
 - d. The meeting's agenda includes the items on which shareholders are required to vote.

Article (31): Quorum for the Ordinary General Assembly Meeting

- 1- The Ordinary General Assembly meeting shall only be valid if attended by shareholders representing at least one-quarter of the Company's shares with voting rights.
- 2- If the quorum required for holding the Ordinary General Assembly meeting, as stipulated in paragraph (1) of this Article, is not met, a second meeting shall be convened in accordance with the same procedures outlined in Article (91) of the Companies Law within thirty (30) days following the date set for the previous meeting. However, the second meeting may be held one hour after the scheduled end of the first meeting, provided that the invitation to the first meeting indicates that the second meeting is still possible. In all cases, the second meeting shall be valid regardless of the number of shares with voting rights represented therein.

Article (32): Quorum for Extraordinary General Meeting

- 1- An Extraordinary General meeting shall only be valid if attended by shareholders representing at least half of the Company's shares with voting rights.
- 2- If the quorum required for holding an Extraordinary General meeting, as stipulated in paragraph (1) of this Article, is not met, a second meeting shall be convened under the same conditions stipulated in Article (91) of the Companies Law. However, the second meeting may be held one hour after the expiry of the time specified for holding the first meeting, provided that the invitation to the first meeting indicates that it is possible to hold that meeting. In all cases, the second meeting shall be valid if attended by shareholders representing at least one-quarter of the Company's shares with voting rights.
- 3- If the quorum required for holding the second meeting is not met, a third meeting shall be convened under the same conditions stipulated in Article (91) of the Companies Law. The third meeting shall be valid regardless of the number of shares with voting rights represented therein.

Article (33): Voting in General Assemblies

- 1- The election of members of the Board of Directors shall be by cumulative voting. Members of the Board of Directors may not participate in voting on resolutions of the General Assembly that relate to business and contracts in which they have a direct or indirect interest, or that involve a conflict of interest.

Article (34): Resolutions of General Assemblies

- 1- Resolutions of the Ordinary General Assembly shall be passed by a majority of the voting rights represented at the meeting.
- 2- Resolutions of the Extraordinary General Assembly shall be passed by a two-thirds majority of the voting rights represented at the meeting, unless the resolution relates to increasing or decreasing the capital, extending the Company's term, dissolving it before the expiry of the term specified in its Articles of Association, merging it with another company, or dividing it into two or more companies, in which case it shall only be valid if passed by a three-quarters majority of the voting rights represented at the meeting.

Article (35): Discussion at General Assemblies

- 1- Every shareholder has the right to discuss the topics included in the agenda of the General Assembly and to direct questions about them to the members of the Board of Directors and the auditors. The Board of Directors or the auditors shall answer the shareholders' questions to the extent that this does not harm the Company's interests. If a shareholder believes that the answer to their question is insufficient, they may appeal to the General Assembly, whose decision in this matter shall be binding.

Article (36): Preparing the Minutes of General Assemblies

- 1- Minutes shall be prepared at the General Assembly meeting, including the number of shareholders present in person or by proxy, the number of shares they hold in person or by proxy, the number of votes due, the resolutions adopted, the number of votes for or against each resolution, and a comprehensive summary of the discussions held at the meeting. The minutes shall be recorded regularly after each meeting in a special register signed by the Chairman of the Assembly, the Secretary, and the vote counters.

Article (37): Attendance at General Assemblies

- 1- A duly constituted general assembly represents all shareholders and convenes in the city where the Company's Head Office is located.
- 2- Each shareholder, regardless of the number of shares held, has the right to attend general assemblies of shareholders and may nominate a proxy, other than a member of the Board of Directors, to attend on their behalf. General assemblies of shareholders may be held, and shareholders may participate in deliberations and vote on resolutions, using means of modern technology, in accordance with the regulations set by the Capital Market Authority.

Article (38): Powers of the Ordinary General Assembly

Except for matters within the competence of the Extraordinary General Assembly, the Ordinary General Assembly has authority over all matters related to the Company. It convenes at least once a year within the six (6) months following the end of the Company's fiscal year. Additional Ordinary General Assemblies may be convened as needed.

Article (39): Powers of the Extraordinary General Assembly

The Extraordinary General Assembly shall have the following powers:

- 1- Amending the Company's Articles of Association, except with regard to depriving a shareholder of or modifying any of their fundamental rights as a shareholder, taking into account the nature of the rights related to the type or class of shares held by the shareholder, and in particular the following:
 1. Receiving a share of the profits that are decided to be distributed, whether in cash or through the issuance of bonus shares to non-employees of the Company and its subsidiaries.
 2. Receiving a share of the Company's net assets upon liquidation.
 3. Attending general or special shareholders' meetings, participating in their deliberations, and voting on their resolutions.
 4. Disposing of their shares, except in accordance with the provisions of the Articles of Association.
 5. Requesting access to the Company's records and documents, monitoring the work of the Board of Directors, filing a liability lawsuit versus Board members, and challenging the validity of resolutions of general and special shareholders' meetings related to amendments that would increase the financial burdens on shareholders, unless all shareholders agree to them.
- 2- Decide on the Company's continuation or dissolution.
- 3- Approval of the Company's purchase of its own shares.

CHAPTER (V) – Shareholders' Assemblies

Article (40): Company Finances and Profit Distribution

- 1- The fiscal year of the Company shall be twelve calendar months, commencing on January 1st and ending on December 31st.
- 2- A separate balance sheet shall be prepared for the transitional period resulting from the adjustment of the fiscal year.

Article (41): Financial Documents

- 1- At the end of each fiscal year, the Board of Directors shall prepare the financial statements. These statements shall consist of: a statement of financial position for reinsurance operations and shareholders, a statement of surplus/deficit from reinsurance operations, a statement of shareholders' income, a statement of shareholders' equity, a statement of cash flows from reinsurance operations, and a statement of cash flows to shareholders. A report on the Company's business activities and financial position for the preceding fiscal year shall also be prepared. This report should include the method proposed for profit distribution. The Board shall make these documents available to the auditors at least forty-five (45) days before the scheduled date of the General Assembly meeting.
- 2- The Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, and the Chief Financial Officer must sign the documents mentioned in paragraph (1). Copies thereof must be deposited at the Company's Head Office for shareholders' use at least twenty (21) days before the scheduled date of the General Assembly meeting.
- 3- The Chairman of the Board must provide the shareholders with the Company's financial statements, the Board of Directors' report (after signing them), and the auditor's report (unless they are published through any means of modern technological) at least twenty (21) days before the scheduled date of the General Assembly meeting. He must also deposit these documents in accordance with the regulations.

Article (42): Reinsurance Operations Accounts

The reinsurance operations accounts shall be separate from the shareholders' income statement, as detailed below:

First: Reinsurance Operations Accounts:

- 1- A separate account shall be maintained for earned premiums, reinsurance commissions, and other commissions.
- 2- A separate account shall be maintained for claims incurred by the Company.
- 3- At the end of each year, the gross surplus is determined. This surplus represents the difference between total premiums and compensations, less marketing, administrative, and operational expenses, and the necessary technical provisions, as per the relevant regulations.
- 4- The net surplus is determined as follows: The gross surplus mentioned in paragraph (3) above is either added to, or subtracted from, the policyholders' share of investment returns after calculating their returns and deducting their expenses.
- 5- The net surplus is distributed either by distributing 10% directly to the policyholders or by reducing their premiums for the following year. The remaining 90% is transferred to the shareholders' income accounts.

Second: Shareholders' Income Statement:

- 1- Shareholders' profits are derived from the return on investment of shareholders' funds, in accordance with the rules established by the Board of Directors.
- 2- Shareholders' share of the net surplus is as stated in paragraph (5) of section First of this Article.

Article (43): Entitlement to Profits.

A shareholder is entitled to their share of the profits in accordance with the resolution of the General Assembly in this regard. The resolution shall specify the entitlement date and the distribution date. Entitlement to profits shall be for shareholders registered in the shareholders' register at the end of the specified entitlement day. The Company shall notify the Capital Market Authority – without delay – of any resolution to distribute profits or a recommendation to do so. The profits to be distributed to shareholders shall be paid at the place and at the times determined by the Board of Directors in accordance with the instructions issued by the competent authority, subject to the prior written approval of the Insurance Authority.

Article (44): Company Losses

If the Company's losses reach half of its issued capital, the Board of Directors must disclose this and its recommendations regarding these losses within sixty (60) days from the date it becomes aware of reaching this percentage. The Board must also convene an Extraordinary General Assembly within one hundred and eighty (180) days from the date of becoming aware of this, to consider the Company's continuation and to take any necessary measures to address these losses or dissolve the Company.

Article (45): Zakat and Reserves

The Company shall:

- 1- Set aside zakat and the legally prescribed income tax.
- 2- Set aside 20% of net profits to form a statutory reserve. The Ordinary General Assembly may suspend this allocation once the total reserve reaches 100% of the paid-up capital.
- 3- When determining the share of net profits, the Ordinary General Assembly may decide to establish other reserves to the extent that serves the Company's interests or ensures the distribution of consistent dividends to shareholders.
- 4- The Company's annual net profits shall be distributed to policyholders, as determined by the Company, after deducting all general expenses and other costs, and after establishing reserves to cover doubtful debts, investment losses, and unforeseen obligations deemed necessary by the Board of Directors, in accordance with the provisions of the Law On Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies and the regulations issued by the Insurance Authority. A minimum of 5% of the paid-up capital shall be allocated from the remaining profits after deducting the reserves stipulated by the relevant regulations and Zakat, for distribution to shareholders as proposed by the Board of Directors and approved by the General Assembly. If the remaining profits due to shareholders are insufficient to cover this allocation, shareholders may not claim it in subsequent year(s). The General Assembly may not approve a profit distribution exceeding that proposed by the Board of Directors.
- 5- The Ordinary General Assembly may, upon the Board of Directors' proposal, decide to disburse these reserves, or any reserves previously set aside by shareholders, including any reserves set aside in accordance with any regulatory requirements prior to the adoption of these Articles of Association, in a manner that benefits the Company or its shareholders.

- 6- The General Assembly shall determine the percentage of net profits, after deducting any reserves, to be distributed to shareholders, based on a recommendation from the Board of Directors, in accordance with applicable regulations and subject to the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Chapter (VI): Dissolution and Liquidation of the Company

Article (46): Dissolution of the Company

- 1- Upon its dissolution, the Company shall enter into liquidation proceedings and retain its legal personality to the extent necessary for liquidation.
- 2- The Extraordinary General Assembly shall issue the voluntary liquidation resolution.
- 3- The liquidation resolution must include the nomination of the liquidator, the determination of their powers and fees, any limitations on their powers, and the time required for the liquidation. The voluntary liquidation period shall not exceed five (5) years and may not be extended beyond this period except by court order.
- 4- The authority of the Company's Board of Directors terminates its dissolution. However, they remain in charge of managing the Company and are considered, with respect to third parties, as liquidators until a liquidator is appointed. The Company's general assemblies remain in place during the liquidation period, and their role is limited to exercising their powers that do not conflict with the powers of the liquidator. The liquidation process ensures the preservation of the policyholders' rights to any surplus from reinsurance operations and reserves established as stipulated in Articles (42) and (43) of these Articles of Association.

CHAPTER (VIII) : Concluding Provisions

Article (47) Concluding Provisions

1. The Company shall be governed by the laws in force in the Kingdom of Saudi Arabia.
2. Any provision in these Articles of Association that contradicts with the provisions of the Companies Law shall be considered invalid, and the provisions of the Companies Law shall apply. Any matter not specifically provided for herein shall be governed by Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations.
3. The founders acknowledge the accuracy of all data and provisions included herein and its conformity with the provisions of the Companies Law issued by Royal Decree No. (M/32) dated 01/12/1443H and its Implementing Regulations. They also acknowledge that these Articles of Association are compliant with all requirements and instructions issued by the Ministry of Commerce in accordance with the provisions of the Law. The founders shall bear full responsibility for all legal and financial consequences that may arise therefrom. Furthermore, the founders acknowledge the Ministry's right to take the necessary legal measures in the event of any violation or conflict in the provisions of these Articles of Association.

Article (48): Publication

- 1- These Articles of Association shall be deposited and published in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations.

Article (49): Liability of the Board Members

- 1- The Board members shall be jointly liable for compensating the Company, shareholders, or third parties for any damages arising from their errors, negligence, or dereliction of duty in the performance of their tasks, or their violation of the provisions of the Law On Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies Supervision and its

Implementing Regulations, other relevant laws, regulations, and instructions, the Companies Law, and the Company's Articles of Association. Any stipulation to the contrary shall be considered invalid. Liability shall be borne by all Board members if the error arises from a decision issued unanimously. However, members who dissent from resolutions issued by majority vote shall not be held liable if they expressly record their objection in the minutes of the meeting. Absence from the meeting at which the resolution is issued shall not be considered a reason for exemption from liability unless it is proven that the absent member was unaware of the resolution or was unable to object to it after becoming aware of it.

- 2- The Company may file a liability claim versus Board members for violating the provisions of the Law on Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies Law, its Implementing Regulations, and other relevant laws, regulations, and instructions, errors, negligence, or dereliction of duty on their part that result in damage to the Company. The General Assembly shall decide whether to file such a claim and nominate a representative to act on behalf of the Company. If the Company is in liquidation, the liquidator shall file the claim. If any liquidation proceedings are initiated against the Company under Bankruptcy Law, the claim shall be filed by its legal representative.
- 3- The approval of the Ordinary General Assembly to discharge Board members from liability shall not preclude the filing of a liability claim.
- 4- One or more partners or shareholders representing five percent (5%) of the Company's capital may file a liability claim versus the Company if the Company fails to do so, provided that the primary objective of the claim is to serve the Company's interests, that the claim is based on sound grounds, that the plaintiff is acting in good faith, and that the plaintiff is a shareholder in the Company at the time the claim is filed.
- 5- Filing the claim referred to in paragraph four (4) above requires notifying the Board members of the intention to file the claim at least fourteen (14) days prior to the filing date.
- 6- A shareholder may file a personal claim versus Board members if the error committed by them causes him specific harm.
- 7- The competent judicial authority, upon the shareholder's request, may charge the Company with the expenses incurred in filing the liability claim, regardless of its outcome, if the claim was filed in good faith and it is in the Company's interest to file such a claim.
- 8- Except in cases of forgery and fraud, a liability claim shall not be heard after five years from the end of the Company's fiscal year in which the harmful act occurred, or three years from the end of the term of the Board member concerned, whichever is later.
- 9- A member of the Company's Board of Directors or its manager is deemed to have fulfilled their duty in good faith in a decision they made or voted on, provided the following conditions are met:
 - a) They had no personal interest in the subject matter of the decision.
 - b) They were aware of and understood the subject matter of the decision to the best of their ability, given the surrounding circumstances.
 - c) They firmly and rationally believed that the decision served the Company's interests. The burden of proving otherwise rests with the plaintiff. For the purposes of this Article, a decision is defined as an action or inaction regarding a matter related to the Company's business.

Article (50): Company Liability

The Company is bound by all actions and transactions undertaken by the Board of Directors, even if outside its authority, unless the interested party acted in bad faith or knew that such actions were outside the Board's authority.

Article (51): Company Articles of Association

The provisions of the Law on Supervision of Cooperative Insurance Companies Law and its Implementing Regulations, the Companies Law, and other relevant laws, regulations, and instructions shall apply to all matters not mentioned in these Articles of Association.

The Articles of Association have been reviewed by the founders and approved by the Ministry's authorized representative. The Articles of Association have been published in the Aamaly Magazine (My Business Magazine), and their validity can be verified via the following link:
